GUNDERSON HIGH SCHOOL FOUNDATION

ARTICLE I Name

The name of the Corporation shall be Gunderson High School Foundation.

ARTICLE II Organization

The organization is a non-profit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purpose. The specific purposes are to give assistance for the educational needs, physical improvements, and programs enhancements of Henry T. Gunderson High School.

ARTICLE III
Purpose and Powers

The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are as follows:

(a) The general purposes and powers of the Corporation are as follows:

(1) The Corporation is formed exclusively for charitable purposes to give assistance for the educational needs, physical improvements, and programs enhancements of Henry T. Gunderson High School, within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (the "Code"). All references to the Code contained herein are deemed to include corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law or regulation.

(2) In furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, the Corporation may exercise all the rights and powers conferred on nonprofit public benefit corporations under the laws of the State of California.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, the Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers, whether expressed or implied, so as to disqualify the Corporation from exemption from federal income tax under Section 501 (a) of the Code by reason of being an organization described in 501 (c)(3) of the Code, so as to disqualify the Corporation as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code and/or so as to disqualify the Corporation from exemption from California income tax under Section 23701 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended, by reason of being an organization described in Section 23701d of said Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IV
Dedication and Dissolution

(a) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in Article III hereof.

(b) No part of the net earnings or of the property or assets of the Corporation shall be used other than for the purposes of the Corporation set forth in Article III.

(c) In the event of liquidation, dissolution, termination, or winding up of the Corporation (whether voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law), the Board of Directors shall, after paying and making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, transfer all the property and assets of the Corporation to one or more Qualified organizations, as defined below in this Article V, as the Board of Directors shall determine. For purposes of this Article V, "Qualified Organization" shall mean a corporation or other organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt from income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code by reason of being an organization described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or corporation or other organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
